

To Migrate from Lynda.com to Linked Learning

1. Open LinkedIn Learning Email
2. Click on “Activate Account Now”
3. Click on “Do not Connect with LinkedIn Account”
4. You should see this prompt

The screenshot shows a dark blue background with a white rectangular form in the center. At the top of the form, it says "Welcome to LinkedIn Learning!". Below this, a message reads: "To confirm your identity, please enter your email verification code." The form contains several input fields and buttons: an "Email Address" field, a blue "Send verification code" button, a "New Password" field, a "Confirm New Password" field, a light blue "Create" button, and a blue "Cancel" button. At the bottom of the form, there is a link that says "Already have an account?". Below the form, on the dark blue background, is a footer that reads: "Have questions about creating a new LinkedIn Learning account? Learn more" and "LinkedIn Terms and Privacy Policy apply".

5. Enter Email address
6. Click on “Send Verification code”

7. Open email inbox and retrieve email with verification code
8. Add verification code to linkedIn verification code box
(Click verify)
9. Create / change password (try google password for this, if that doesn't work make a new one)

The image shows a LinkedIn Learning account creation or verification screen. It has a dark blue header with the text "Welcome to LinkedIn Learning!". Below this is a white rectangular form area. Inside the form, the text "To confirm your identity, please enter your email verification code." is displayed. Below the text is a text input field containing the email address "danielcardona@pcad.edu". Underneath the input field is a blue button labeled "Change e-mail". Below that is another text input field labeled "New Password". Underneath that is a third text input field labeled "Confirm New Password". Below the password fields is a large blue button labeled "Create". Underneath the "Create" button is a link labeled "Cancel". At the bottom of the form area is a link labeled "Already have an account?". Below the form area, outside the white rectangle, is a line of text: "Have questions about creating a new LinkedIn Learning account? Learn more". At the very bottom of the page is a line of text: "LinkedIn Terms and Privacy Policy apply".

10. Skip until the skill screen, as shown. It requires choosing at least 1 skill to move forward.

The screenshot shows a mobile application interface for selecting skills. At the top, there is a blue header bar with a white back arrow on the left and the text "What skills do you want to learn?" in white. Below the header is a white rectangular area containing a search bar with the placeholder text "Enter skills or add from the list below". Under the search bar, there is a grid of skill tags, each consisting of the skill name followed by a plus sign (+). The skills listed are: Digital Marketing, Design, Microsoft Excel, Databases, Business Strategy, Mobile Application Development, Data Analysis, Leadership, Web Development, Microsoft Office, and Back-End Web Development. Below the grid is a "Show more" link with a downward-pointing chevron icon. At the bottom of the white area is a large, light blue button with the text "Pick one or more skills to continue".

11. Good to go!
