

Library of Congress

Classification Outline

The Library of Congress classification follows groupings of the humanities, social sciences, fine arts, natural sciences, and physical sciences. Each class is further broken down from the general to the specific subject.

The Pennsylvania College of Art & Design Library uses the Library of Congress Classification.

| Class Letter | Subject                             |
|--------------|-------------------------------------|
| A            | General Works                       |
| B            | Philosophy, Psychology, Religion    |
| C            | Auxiliary Sciences of History       |
| D            | History: General & Old World        |
| E & F        | History: Americas                   |
| G            | Geography, Anthropology, Recreation |
| H            | Social Science                      |
| J            | Political Science                   |
| K            | Law                                 |
| L            | Education                           |
| M            | Music                               |
| N            | Fine Arts                           |
| P            | Language & Literature               |
| Q            | Science                             |
| R            | Medicine                            |
| S            | Agriculture                         |
| T            | Technology                          |
| U            | Military Science                    |
| V            | Naval Science                       |
| Z            | Bibliography, Information Resources |